

Offertory Hymn VU 39 Mother Earth our Mother birthing every creature from the ground, Jesus too was flesh and breathing, kin to all that's green and brown. Celebrate with all creation: God has formed the web of life; celebrate with all creation God has formed the web of life!

Offertory Prayer

In spite of our doubts, may we recognize you in our midst: Wounded and resurrected. In spite of our doubts, may we know when we come face to face with the love that is greater than death. In spite of our doubts, may we reach out to touch the wounds of the world's pain trusting that when grace and love surround them they will become part of Christ's resurrected body.

WE GATHER TO WORSHIP GOD

Acknowledging the Territory

As a community of faith, we seek to build right relations between all who call Canada home; to learn together and to live on the land with respect and gratitude for its creation and our Creator. This is our commitment.

Introit: 166 v.3 Joy comes with the dawn; joy comes with the morning sun; joy springs from the tomb and scatters the night with her son, joy comes with the dawn.

Call to Worship

When Thomas touched the wounds and set himself free
it was Easter day

When Peter's three "yes's" to Jesus finished his three denials
it was Easter day

When Mary encountered the unknown gardener who turned out to be Jesus

it was Easter day

When Emmaus became synonymous with welcome and the breaking of bread with strangers

it was Easter day

When Paul was blinded by the light and recognised the voice crying out his name

it was Easter day

When the hungry are fed and everyone finds a home

it is Easter day

When weapons are beaten to ploughshares and peace is known in every community

it is Easter day

When the stranger is welcomed in community and the lonely are restored to relationship

it is Easter day...

HYMN: VU 158 Christ is Alive

Christ Candle

God of love, you have raised Jesus from death to life! Lead us always into newness of life. Light of Christ, rising as the sun on a new day, overcoming the darkness of death, shine on our path, chase away all darkness, and lead us to the heart of God. Light of Christ, rising in glory, be the light of our hearts! (the Christ Candle is lit)

Prayer of Approach

God of Life, in the beginning you breathed your spirit into the human form and we came to life. On the day Jesus rose he breathed his spirit into the disciples and sent them forth in love. Now with every breath we take you breathe into us you love. We breathe deeply of your Spirit that we may come to life anew in you. Breathe on us, Breath of God.

Renewal of Baptismal Promises

During this season of Easter, we affirm our faith in God revealed in Pascal Mystery of Christ Jesus; we renew our commitment to seek justice, to follow the way of Jesus and to serve in the mission and ministry of the church by proclaiming our creed: (VU 918)

We are not alone,

we live in God's world.

We believe in God:

who has created and is creating,

who has come in Jesus,

the Word made flesh,

to reconcile and make new,

who works in us and others

by the Spirit.

We trust in God.

We are called to be the Church:

to celebrate God's presence,

to live with respect in Creation,

to love and serve others,

to seek justice and resist evil,

to proclaim Jesus, crucified and risen,

our judge and our hope.

In life, in death, in life beyond death, God is with us.

We are not alone. Thanks be to God.

Response VU 327 v5 Let every tongue confess with one accord in heaven and earth that Jesus Christ is Lord, and God eternal be by all adored: hallelujah, hallelujah!

Minute for Mission

Offertory Invitation The Risen Christ invited Thomas to touch the wounds in his hands and his side. When we give our gifts in Jesus' name, we can touch the wounds of the world with his healing power. Give, knowing that you will make a difference for Christ's sake.
